

MORNING APPEAL

SUNDAY.....MAY 1

THE PEOPLE TO THE FORE.

Some of our party-collared contemporaries express the opinion that the present trend of politics in this State should be checked, as it might lead to a third party.

In our humble opinion the third party is already here.

The APPEAL warned the politicians of this State during the last session of the Legislature that they were sowing the seeds of a whirlwind when they trampled on the rights of the voters and refused to count the ballots which gave a majority to the calling of a Constitutional Convention.

The people wanted a new Constitution and expressed their wish clearly and unmistakably at the polls, but the party bosses did not want the old Constitution—which placed the people of the State in the power of the corporations—changed, and so a Legislature, created by the corporations solely for their own convenience and composed of Republicans and Democrats, deliberately threw out enough votes to thwart the will of the people of Nevada.

This was done by the most open and barefaced methods and the counties of Eureka and Lyon were disfranchised by the most disgraceful and arrogant assumption of power. Even when the masks were torn from the faces of the conspirators in the Senate chamber by forcing them to vote on issues they had persistently dodged, they did not pause in their work of trampling on the will of the majority.

It was here that the party bosses committed political suicide. It was then that the death knell of partisan politics was sounded in Nevada and it was in Lyon and Eureka that the revolt began. It set the people to thinking and this is why honest voters refuse to be tricked into attending machine primaries, that they may be ready to act for themselves at the general elections. The crack of the party whips, which a few years ago caused the voters to cower and cringe, now only excites derisive laughter.

The people of Nevada have been tricked, robbed and humbugged year after year by conscienceless connubators, masquerading as exponents of party politics.

The leaders of both parties, while apparently the bitterest enemies in Nevada, meet at midnight at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco and then make the most shameless trades and bargains. When they meet to job the people and divide the spoils, all pretense of party lines are obliterated and they are merely a conclave of boodlers concocting schemes to hoodwink the voters of Nevada and loot the State.

There has been no Republican or Democratic party in Nevada for years. It is merely the Palace Hotel party whose Central Committee has its headquarters and principal place of business in San Francisco.

The people of Nevada are a confident class and they will stand a good deal, but there is a certain point beyond which they cannot be driven. They are making a stand now all over the State and will strike a blow for their rights. The outcome will be a Silver party in the Silver State. They will build a platform that no gold bug or weak-kneed silver man can stand on. They will cast off the old garments of boodles and bossism and pitch them into a corner as a man discards a suit of lousy underclothes that are unfit for the wash.

They will remove the big "copper" that has been holding down Nevada and go in for State development and prosperity and the Silver party will see that when the citizens of Nevada vote, their votes will be counted and San Francisco will no longer be the capitol of Nevada.

An Honest Confession.

When we strike we would like to hit the bag and not throw our arm out of joint by striking into space. —Gazette.

It is quite evident to everybody that the last time the Gazette struck it hit the bag all right, but for just what amount no one knows but the fellow who held the bag when the Gazette "threw out its arm."

There is no ground to stand on between the Silver Leagues and the gold combine. The fence is the dividing line and it is a mighty poor seat. You will be safer on the ground floor when the fight starts. —Silver State.
